

Public Statement

Our communities can be assured that Trinity Health has the plans and resources in place to do our part managing a potential widespread swine flu outbreak. If a patient suspected of having swine flu is seen in one of our emergency departments or urgent care centers, our physicians and nurses are skilled at quickly responding and working in cooperation with the health department.

If the swine flu outbreak escalates within the communities we serve, we are prepared to handle an influx of patients to our facilities.