OPPORTUNITY HIGHLIGHTS
Saint Alphonsus Regional Medical Center – Boise and Saint Alphonsus Medical Group have an excellent full-time employment opportunity for a Gynecology Oncology physician to join a full-spectrum practice within a vibrant and growing Women's Health Services Program & Women's Specialty Center located in Boise, Idaho.

Saint Alphonsus Medical Group (SAMG) is a physician led and accountable 380+ provider multispecialty group practice seeking a Gynecologic Oncologist who is committed to a multi-disciplinary team-based approach to care and who will provide this care in a high quality and compassionate manner healing the body, mind and spirit. Well-qualified candidates should be passionate and knowledgeable about women's health issues, possess a strong surgical background to include training and experience in traditional open, as well as minimally invasive (laparoscopy and robotic surgery) approaches. The candidate must also possess the desire to develop an outpatient-based practice in support of our growing Women's Health Specialty Services within a regionally integrated healthcare system.

The selected physician will practice within an operative and clinic-based practice at the Saint Alphonsus Women's Specialty Center in Boise and in Cancer Care Centers located mostly within the Treasure Valley / Boise Metro Area. This opportunity offers a traditional Monday – Friday schedule with no less than 32 hours of scheduled patient contact time. The physician will participate in a system call rotation for Gynecologic Oncology services (with supportive call triage service) shared equitably with other eligible SAMG providers.
The requirements for this opportunity include the successful completion of American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) accredited Residency and Gynecologic Oncology Fellowship training programs. A current, unrestricted full license in Idaho (and eventually Oregon) to practice medicine in all its phases, a valid controlled substance registration with Idaho Board (and eventually Oregon Board) of Pharmacy and DEA, Board Certification and subspecialty certification through The American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology (ABO+G) (or obtain such certifications within 3 years of employment) are required. Training and/or experience with conventional, open surgical approaches are required, with preference shown toward candidates possessing strong minimally invasive (laparoscopy and robotic surgery) skills.

SARMC also has an established Cerner PowerChart Inpatient EMR and NexGen Ambulatory EHR. Therefore experience with electronic health records is desirable.
