OPPORTUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

Saint Alphonsus Medical Group and Saint Alphonsus Cancer Care Center have an excellent full time opportunity for a Board Certified or Board Eligible Hematology/ Oncology physician to be part of a vibrant and growing multispecialty group within a freestanding cancer center located in Caldwell, Idaho.

Saint Alphonsus Medical Group (SAMG) is a physician led 450+ provider multispecialty group with a multi-disciplinary team approach to patient care. Anchored with locations in Boise, Nampa and Caldwell, outreach clinics in Emmett, Idaho and Ontario, Oregon, and telemedicine opportunities through the region, this full-spectrum medical oncology and hematology practice is QOPI certified and CoC accredited, offering rewarding opportunities including over 100 clinical trials.

The incoming provider will join a seven-physician group in growing a comprehensive regional cancer care program. Based at the freestanding Caldwell Cancer Center, this role also splits time at one of our satellite clinics on a weekly basis.

This full service cancer center with medical and radiation oncology offers integrative care team support with nurse navigators, social work support, genetics counseling, and nutritionist. Weekly tumor boards provide the opportunity to collaborate with fellowship trained Breast, Plastic/Reconstruction, Gynecologic Oncology, Colorectal, Neurosurgery,
Thoracic and Esophageal surgeons. Innovative programs include lung cancer screening, lung nodule clinic, neuro oncology, and robust clinical trials through the Montana Cancer Consortium. Primary care providers in key geographic locations throughout the Treasure Valley, support the specialists.

The schedule for this opportunity is a four-day workweek, Monday through Friday, with a minimum of 32 hours of patient contact time. This includes clinic, rounding and consults in Nampa. Call for this opportunity is 1:7 shared equitably on evenings and weekends. A full time medical oncology hospitalist covers workweek, daytime call.

Requirements for this opportunity include Doctor of Medicine (MD) or Doctor of Osteopathy (DO) degree, successful completion of an accredited Internal Medicine residency program and Medical Oncology and Hematology Fellowship with Board Certification in Internal Medicine and Hematology/Oncology through the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) or the American Osteopathic Board of Internal Medicine (AOBIM) - or obtain such certification within 3 years of employment. The selected candidate must be eligible to obtain Idaho and Oregon medical licensures granting of privileges at SARMC- Boise, SAMC- Nampa, and other health system affiliated hospitals as needed, a DEA as well as valid controlled substance registrations with the Idaho and Oregon Boards of Pharmacy.

This is an exciting opportunity for the right Hematology/ Oncology physician to be part of Saint Alphonsus Health System.

COMMUNITY DESCRIPTION:

Caldwell, Idaho (est. pop. 47,700) is a city in and the county seat of Canyon County in southwestern Idaho. Caldwell is considered part of the Boise metropolitan area and it – along with the cities of Boise, Nampa, Meridian, Eagle, Star, Emmett, Garden City, Kuna and Mountain Home – comprise the Boise Valley (aka the Treasure Valley). Located along Interstate 84, it is 35 minutes from the Boise Airport.

The Caldwell area is home to some of Idaho's finest medal-winning wineries. It is also home to the College of Idaho, considered one of the best small liberal arts school in the Northwest, as well as Treasure Valley Community College and a number of public and charter schools. Recreational activities are a highlight of Idaho and the Caldwell area provides access to many opportunities including world-class fishing, hunting, biking, hiking, museums, great restaurants, the famous Caldwell Night Rodeo and many other events throughout the year.

Nampa, Idaho, is Idaho's second-largest city with a population of more than 83,000 residents. Situated in Canyon County, Nampa lies west of Boise and is located in the center of the Boise metro area; it is less than 20 miles from the Boise Airport. Located along Interstate 84, the area boasts excellent transportation corridors in all four directions.

The city of Nampa is experiencing dramatic growth in its residential, commercial and industrial sectors. Nampa's family-friendly community has a distinct cultural heritage and its historic downtown stands poised for a renaissance. Civic amenities enhance the excitement of a culturally rich urban core and translate into a dynamic place to live and work.

For Multiple years, Nampa has been named among the Top 100 Communities for Youth. Nampa's schools, library, Boys and Girls Club and numerous non-profit community events and agencies give young people opportunities to grow. Nampa is also home to Northwest Nazarene University, the Idaho Hispanic Cultural Center, Deer Flat National Wildlife Refuge and Celebration Park – showcasing Native American art from over 12,000 years ago. With wineries, golf courses, museums, concerts, a farmer's market and annual rodeos, it's easy for Nampa to live up to the motto, “Small town feeling - Big time fun!”

Nampa boasts tremendous recreation opportunities, with swimming, boating, fishing, off-road trails, hiking and bird watching. Just 15 miles south of town, the Snake River winds through a dramatic desert canyon. The Boise Mountains (30 miles to the north) and Owyhee Mountains (30 miles to the south) provide ample opportunities for skiing, alpine hiking, hunting, rock climbing, and amazing sightseeing. There are vast public lands perfect for exploring, biking and camping. The city sits at an elevation of 2,480 feet, and the high desert climate offers four seasons with mild winters.

Nampa and its surrounding communities afford a quality of life second to none. Offering good jobs, affordable housing, a safe place to raise a family and outdoor recreation opportunities are just some of what makes Nampa the great place it is!
