FACILITY DESCRIPTION

Mercy Physician Network (MPN) is located across the greater Philadelphia region and offers our community access to high-quality care delivered with compassion and respect. MPN comprises primary care practices in addition to nearly 20 specialties and subspecialties to best serve our communities with a healthcare team that works for you.

Patients rate their experience at our practices using a confidential survey administered by a third party to determine what percentage of our patients would recommend our providers. At the end of 2018, 91.7 percent of patients said they would recommend their MPN provider.

With over 70 physicians, most of which are board-certified in their fields, have the knowledge and expertise to deal with a multitude of health-related issues in a coordinated fashion.

Mercy Philadelphia Hospital has been caring for the communities in West and Southwest Philadelphia for over 100 years.

Founded by the Sisters of Mercy, its mission is characterized by a dedication to the poor and disadvantaged and by providing compassionate care to all patients.

In 2018, Mercy Philadelphia Hospital had 7,680 admissions, 48,627 visits in the Emergency Department, and 58,675 outpatient visits. The hospital has 157 licensed beds.

Clinical excellence and patient safety are top priorities at Mercy Philadelphia Hospital, as reflected by its ‘A’ grade for Patient Safety from the Leapfrog Group. Other quality recognitions include its certification as a Primary Stroke Center by the Joint Commission, a Lung Cancer Screening Center and a Breast Imaging Center of Excellence by the American College of Radiology, as well as accolades including Get with the Guidelines Gold Plus Achievement for Stroke Care and Get with the Guidelines Gold Award for Heart Failure.

Comprehensive services at Mercy Philadelphia Hospital include bariatrics, emergency, surgical, cardiac, critical care, oncology, wound care and hyperbarics, gastroenterology, behavioral health, physical and occupational rehabilitation, vascular, and interventional and diagnostic radiology. The Mercy Cancer Care program is accredited by The American College of Surgeons Commission on Cancer, and is affiliated with the Sidney Kimmel Cancer Network at Jefferson. In addition, affiliations with Penn Medicine Heart and Vascular Network and the Jefferson Neuroscience Network bring world-class cardiovascular and neurosurgical services, respectively, to the communities served by the hospital.
Through countless community outreach, such as free screenings, the popular and free Dine with the Docs series, support groups and education, as well as alliances with churches, community organizations and leaders, the hospital impacts the lives of thousands of residents annually.
