OPPORTUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

St. Peter's Health Partners is seeking a full time Hospice and Palliative Care Medical Director to join a respected and compassionate team of caregivers in the Capital District of New York.

The Medical Director meets periodically with the entire hospice interdisciplinary group (nurses, social workers, chaplains) for care planning to meet each patient's and family's specific needs, serves as a resource to and collaborates with the hospice patient's community medical providers (including prescribing medications), is responsible for certifying the hospice patient's initial and ongoing eligibility for hospice services, helps to determine the appropriate level of hospice care, and may serve as the hospice patient's attending physician.

The Medical Director visits patients in their homes, nursing homes, and hospitals as necessary, and routinely participates in the education of medical students, NP and PA students, as well as residents and Geriatrics Fellows. On-call responsibilities will be shared by a group of five hospice physicians.

This opportunity is unable to sponsor H1B or J1 visa candidates at this time.

This is an exciting opportunity to join St. Peter's Health Partners system.
