OPPORTUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

Saint Joseph Physician Network (SJPN) has an excellent full time employment opportunity for a Nurse Practitioner to join a well-established general primary care practice with locations in Plymouth and Culver, Indiana.

This opportunity is within a conventional outpatient Family Medicine practice working approximately 36 hours per week. The average number of patients treated per day is 20; providing care to patients off all ages, pediatrics through geriatrics. Procedures can be performed on-site and support staff includes one medical assistant per physician as well as front office support.

Previous experience is preferred as the Nurse Practitioner will be expected to work autonomously and occasionally may be the only provider at the clinic. The selected Nurse Practitioner will be expected to occasionally provide back up for the Nurse Practitioner at Culver Academies Health Center. EMR is currently Cerner PowerChart, therefore experience with EMR's is desirable.

Call is phone only and is reasonable; rotating amongst Culver and Plymouth Nurse Practitioners.

This is an exciting opportunity for the right Nurse Practitioner to be part of a growing practice.
RECRUITMENT PACKAGE

Saint Joseph Physician Network is offering an excellent competitive compensation package for the right candidate including:

- Compensation is a combination of productivity and achievement of value driven quality metrics for the SJPN clinic.
- Health/dental/vision/disability/life insurance/retirement benefits.
- 22 days off per year; 5 days and $2,500 for CME.
- $1,500 per year for professional journals, dues, and memberships.
- Relocation assistance provided in accordance with policy.
- Malpractice is covered.

COMMUNITY DESCRIPTION

Plymouth, Indiana – is located south of South Bend in the heart of Marshall County and with a population of approximately 12,000. Plymouth offers small town friendliness with the sophistication of a larger city. Plymouth is the largest town in Marshall County and has previously been one of the fastest growing communities in Indiana.

Marshall County is home to fantastic museums ranging from the Marshall County Historical Society Museum to the Culver Academies Museum. The area is blessed with six golf courses within 20 minutes of the city limits and a variety of recreational activities such as biking, fishing, hiking and hunting, kayaking and boating. There are 20 lakes to choose from as well as the Yellow and Tippecanoe Rivers. Marshall County also has fine dining for every taste including five-star menus, vintage drive-ins and charming cafés to reconnect you to a simpler and easier life.

Plymouth boasts a diversified industrial park that is home to approximately 70 businesses and is still growing. The community is recognized for its strong school system for academic and athletic achievements, a 50,000-volume library and an outdoor amphitheater. The Plymouth Arts Commission – Encore Performing Arts brings nationally recognized entertainment to the community.

Plymouth is also recognized for its extensive park system, most notably Centennial Park, complete with the Bill Nixon Baseball Stadium. Lake Maxinkuckee, the second largest spring-fed lake in Indiana, also offers plenty of sailing and water-skiing. Enjoy our state-managed Menominee Wildlife Conservation Area and the scenic bicycle ride from Plymouth to Culver during the spring, summer and fall.
