OPPORTUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

Holy Cross Medical Group (HCMG), Holy Cross Hospital, and the Phil Smith Neuroscience Institute have a phenomenal full time opportunity for a fellowship trained, Board Certified or Board Eligible Neurology – Vascular/Stroke Hospitalist to replace a retiring physician. This opportunity is located in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

The selected candidate will work within the Phil Smith Neuroscience Institute. This extremely busy, hospital-based, multi-disciplinary neuroscience practice specializes in Neurology, Neurosurgery, and Spine and Pain Management. Sub-specialty Neurology includes Stroke, Neuro degenerative, ALS, MS, Parkinson’s Disease, Movement Disorders, Migraines, Botox, Epilepsy, and Spine.

The selected candidate will work primarily in the hospital as a Neuro-Hospitalist and be a key physician leader within the comprehensive Stroke team that includes a Neurointerventional Radiologist, Neurocritical Care Intensivist, and a seasoned Stroke Coordinator.

The Stroke program has been recognized by the American Heart/Stroke Association as a Gold Plus Center since 2012. The program has also received Target Stroke Honor Roll Elite Plus certification since 2014. In 2018, the program achieved Thrombectomy Stroke Center (TSC) Certification Accreditation by the Joint Commission.
The selected candidate will work with 17 physicians and three advanced practice providers in the practice. This opportunity is 90% inpatient and 10% outpatient. Call coverage is 1:4.

This is a phenomenal opportunity for a Neurology – Vascular/Stroke Hospitalist to build a practice within an extremely busy, multi-disciplinary neuroscience institute within Holy Cross Medical Group.
