OPPORTUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

St. Joseph Mercy Oakland (SJMO) has an excellent opportunity for a Board Certified or Board Eligible Neurology physician who is experienced or Fellowship trained in Vascular Neurology to join a group located in Pontiac and Clarkston, Michigan.

The selected candidate will practice in both Inpatient and Outpatient environments.

St. Joseph Mercy Oakland is the home of Michigan's first Certified Primary Stroke Center, as designated by The Joint Commission and the American Stroke Association.

Through the recruitment of outstanding physicians and staff, acquisition of sophisticated equipment and the development of new programs, neuroscience care at St. Joseph Mercy Oakland has grown into a nationally recognized stroke center providing comprehensive care. SJMO is the hub of the Michigan Stroke Network, one of the largest Telemedicine Network in the region, providing more than 15 hospitals with Telemedicine services.

This is an exciting opportunity for the right Neurology physician to be part of a growing group and a Neuroscience team with interventional neurology, stroke care, epilepsy and more.
RECRUITMENT PACKAGE

SJMO is offering an excellent compensation and benefits package for the right candidate.

COMMUNITY DESCRIPTION

Oakland County, Michigan – Named for its beautiful oak trees, Oakland County offers a blend of big city, suburban, and rural lifestyles. Oakland County is recognized as having Michigan’s second highest population with a residential population of more than 68,000 and has continued to grow since its inception over 175 years ago. Located north of Detroit, Oakland County is part of the nation’s seventh largest metropolitan area and is home to 39 cities and 14 townships. Today, residents have access to 30 downtown areas, nearly 90,000 acres of natural settings, several entertainment and sports venues, plus countless opportunities to achieve a high quality of life. This area is also home to several institutions of higher education, well-known private schools, and exemplary public schools.

With its proximity to Detroit, quality schools, and numerous recreational opportunities, the Oakland area is a perfect place to raise a family. Museums and golf courses are nearby, and Detroit's sporting events, concerts and more are just a half-hour away. The old, well established neighborhoods of the past are joined by gorgeous new residential development. The Oakland area is also a great locale for pet lovers.

Oakland County is the new horizon for living, working and prospering. Focused on the future, Oakland County is one of the wealthiest counties in America, and features a quality of life and commerce that few places can match. Oakland offers world-class educational opportunities for children and adults, ranging from two award-winning public school districts, Avondale Schools and Rochester Community Schools, to Oakland University, a major Division I degree-granting university. The community also is served by 10 private schools, Rochester College and Oakland Community College, the largest of Michigan’s community-based publicly funded institutions.

With excellent schools, affordable housing, employment opportunities and an abundance of cultural and recreational activities, moving to Oakland County will be the best decision you can make.
