OPPORTUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

Trinity Health Mid-Atlantic Medical Groups and St. Mary Medical Center have an excellent full time employment opportunity for a Trauma Surgery physician to join a team located in Langhorne, Pennsylvania.

The selected candidate will join a team of five providers and three advanced practice providers. The trauma surgeon will also collaborate with consulting specialists and ancillary services to provide optimal care to our trauma patients. The surgeon will function as a clinical liaison between the Trauma Service and other physician services as well as in-house departments related to optimal clinical care of the injured patient.

The selected candidate will participate in the trauma department's performance improvement process as evidenced through participation in meetings, timely response to inquiries from the trauma department’s quality improvement program, ability to develop/implement action plans and reevaluate care, as indicated.

The shifts for this opportunity are day, evening, and night shifts (156 hours per month, thirteen 12 hour shifts). Shift length are 12 or 24 hours. Call coverage – weekends, weeknights and holiday commitment (varies by schedule).
Candidates should be open to acute surgical consults/ procedures. Candidates must be Fellowship trained in General Surgery & Surgical Critical Care and have an active ATLS certification.

This is an exciting opportunity for the right Trauma Surgery physician to join Trinity Health Mid-Atlantic Medical Groups.
